ONE WAY TO SEE A FAIR.

Two Lads Arrested on a Third-Story Fire-Escape.

Two youngsters were standing on Building, at Forty-fourth street and Lexington avenue, yesterday afternoon, where the Cathedral fair is held. The boys are Robert Reilly, twelve, and John McCarthy, fifteen years old. They were trying to force open the window. They had climbed up a pole. Policeman Conovan, of the Grand Censtand in front of their store to look at Santa Claus in the window.

The amateur delectives thought the girls were acting suspiciously and caused their arrest. In Cora's pocket was found a purse containing some change, and the card of Mrs. Acker, of 126 East Twenty-seventh street. Cora said she found the purse on the sidewalk.

The children's parents are respectable people and declared their children would not know how to pick pockets. Agent King, of the Gerry Society, will investigate the records of the girls, and inquire of Mrs. Acker how she lost her purse.

Seely. Mr. Van Vleck denied the published retion of Assistant Bookkeeper Bamuel C. Seely.

Mi. Van Vleck denied the published report that a fuller examination of Seely's books had reduced the amount of his shortage. "It still remains the same, no more and no less," he said.

The absence of Assistant Cashier William Ray Crane, since a few days after Seely's defalcation was made public, has created comment. Crane, by the way, is no relative of President Crane. Cashier Van Vleck said this morning:

"He is a very sick man, and I had hoped nothing would be said about it, for his sake. He contemplated a Bouthern trip some time ago. He is suffering from pulmonary trouble. There is not the slightest suspicion of wrongdoing. He is honest as the day is long.

FLEMING AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

Essex Market Court, before Justice Simms, Mrs. Gleseke applied for the recovery of the askes, declaring that they were kept from her unlawfully. The Court decided that no woman had a right to retain possession of another woman's husband, whether in an iron box or otherwise. So Mrs. Beisner was ordered to deliver the box to Mrs. Gleseke. Mrs. Beisner was inclined to ridicule the proceedings, but the Court frowned her down.

"Suppose the spirit of that dead man were to arise from his sahes and reprove you for keeping him in pawn?" observed the Justice. impressively.

Mrs. Beisner shuddered, and, with a muttered remark that she "didn't want his old ashes," she hastened home and sent a man post-haste with the box to Mrs. Glesekes home, No. 109 First avenue.

But Mrs. Gleseke will to-day apply for Wilbur, of the Tenderloin squad. Arrested Once with Eugene Kelly, Miss Creamer said be came to her place yesterday afternoon, and while she was in another room he took the articles mentioned. The whole loss amounted to $35.
